“TEE IT UP FOR CHARITY” CAMPAIGN TO BENEFIT MEALS ON WHEELS OF CENTRAL MARYLAND

BALTIMORE, MD – Starting on September 4, Baltimore County golfers can enjoy playing a round of golf while also benefiting Meals on Wheels of Central Maryland. The “TEE IT UP FOR CHARITY” campaign, a unique charity program presented by Baltimore County Golf, provides Meals on Wheels, as well as other non-profit organizations, an opportunity to share in a “donation pool” estimated at over $25,000. The campaign will run through November 21, 2007.

Golfers teeing off between Noon and Twilight can donate $1.00 of their adult playing fees to Meals on Wheels or to another charity of choice. No additional fees are added and golfers pay the golf courses’ current rates. Participating Baltimore County golf courses include: Greystone, The Woodlands, Diamond Ridge, Rocky Point, Longview and Gunpowder Falls.

Last year, Meals on Wheels of Central Maryland provided 186,425 meals to 797 Baltimore County residents. For more information about Meals on Wheels, the “TEE IT UP FOR CHARITY” Campaign or other upcoming events, call 410-558-0932 Ext. 10929 or visit: www.mealsonwheelsmd.org
